

A 30 year old golfer with wrist pain and ulnar impaction syndrome due to a variation in the length of his ulna.

8 months following the shortening of his ulna with a thin metal plate and screws, he resumed golf at his preoperative handicap without pain.